JUROR'S STATEMENT

Kathy Blankley Roman

Chicago artist Kathy Blankley Roman has been making art as far back as she can remember. While she took some formal classes at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, she developed most of her skills through classes at local art centers and workshops. Known for her high energy expressive paintings, Roman has been painting and showing her current abstract work since her retirement in 2011. References to her background in calligraphy often appear in her earthy paintings that explore gesture, textural and color contrasts. An award winning artist, her work has appeared in solo, juried and curated shows nationally, online and in private collections.

PEOPLES CHOICE AWARD

The public votes for their favorite work of art at the 2022 SALI National Abstract Art Exhibition.

This award will be presented at the conclusion of the exhibit.
